

CURRICULUM VITAE

EMILI RAMBUS, Psy.D.
Associates in Psychological Services, P.A.
25 North Doughty Avenue
Somerville, New Jersey 08876
(908) 526-1177 Ext. 48
erambus@apspa.com

EDUCATION:

Psy.D.-University of Denver, School of Professional Psychology, Denver, Colorado, August, 1990. Clinical Psychology-APA accredited.

M.A.-Hawaii School of Professional Psychology, Honolulu, Hawaii, June 1986. Clinical Psychology.

B.A.-Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo, Michigan, June, 1979. Psychology.

PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIALS:

New Jersey Licensed Psychologist (#3026)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

February, 1993-Present

Psychologist, Associates in Psychological Services, P.A., 25 N. Doughty Avenue, Somerville, New Jersey.

Psychotherapy with children, adolescents, and adults; psychotherapy with sexual abuse victims, sex offenders, and more general anxiety, depression, and relationship issues; forensic evaluations, specializing in the field of sexual abuse (sexual victimization and sex offending issues).

October, 1991-August, 1996 - New Jersey Department of Corrections

August 1996-December 2004 - Public Safety Concepts

January 2005-Present - University Correctional HealthCare (Rutgers), formerly UMDNJ

Staff Psychologist/Consultant/Forensic Mental Health Clinician,

Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center, Avenel, New Jersey.

Group therapy with adult male sex offenders sentenced to this specialized prison. Individual therapy, family therapy, outpatient evaluations. Direct Aftercare Program- facilitate two groups to help former inmates reintegrate back into society. Provide supervision for psychologists and professional counselors working toward state licensure.

April, 1992-April, 2008

Advocate, Women's Health and Counseling Center, Sexual Assault Support Services of Somerset County, Somerville, New Jersey.
Crisis intervention counselor, as part of the Sexual Assault Response Team (SART), with hotline calls and available as hospital advocate for rape survivors and their family members.

October, 1997-December, 2005 and October, 2011-July, 2013

Consultant, Juvenile Justice Commission, Training and Consultation Program, Trenton, New Jersey.
Facilitator/co-facilitator of training group for clinicians interested in providing assessment and treatment services to juveniles adjudicated for sexual offenses and their families. One year program involved an all-day training session and twenty group case consultation sessions. Most recently, federal grant for Second Chance reintegration program.

December, 1992-April, 1993 and March, 1998-September, 1999

Psychologist, Institute for Evaluation and Planning, Freehold, New Jersey.
Psychological evaluations of adolescents in crisis who had been removed from their homes and resided temporarily in "host" homes. Individual and group psychotherapy.
Facilitator of therapy group for juveniles adjudicated for sexual offenses at New Jersey Training School for Boys--Jamesburg, a medium secure institution for delinquent youth.

September, 1990-August, 1991

Post-doctoral Fellow, University of Tennessee Professional Psychology Internship Consortium, Memphis, Tennessee.
Fellowship specializing in child and adolescent psychology. Individual, group, family therapy, and psychological evaluations conducted primarily in a private inpatient psychiatric facility. Individual and group treatment with outpatient adult sex offenders.

September, 1989-August, 1990

Psychology Intern, University of Tennessee Professional Psychology Internship Consortium, Memphis, Tennessee.
APA-accredited internship program consisting of a variety of rotation sites. Individual, group, family, multi-family treatment to victims of sexual abuse, adolescents diagnosed with posttraumatic stress disorder, conduct disorder, and chemical dependency, sexually abusive youth and adult sex offenders; psychological assessments; competency evaluations.

September, 1988-August, 1989

Psychology Trainee, Federal Correctional Institution, Englewood, Colorado.
Psychological screening evaluations, individual therapy, crisis intervention, group treatment, assessments to male inmates at this administrative-level Federal prison.

July, 1988-June, 1989

Psychometrician, Fitzsimons Army Medical Center, Aurora, Colorado/Denver General Hospital, Denver, Colorado.
Administered cognitive assessments to individuals who tested HIV+ as part of a research grant sponsored by Burroughs-Wellcome Drug Company to conduct field test with the drug AZT.

September, 1987-August 1989

Psychology Trainee/Associate, Lenore Walker & Associates, Denver, Colorado.
Psychological testing, extensive interviewing with adult female victims of violence. Forensic evaluations for child custody cases and women diagnosed with posttraumatic stress disorder. Individual therapy.

May, 1987-February, 1988

Group Living Counselor, Excelsior Youth Center, Aurora, Colorado.
Provided clinical services to emotionally and/or behaviorally disturbed female adolescents in a residential treatment center.

January, 1987-August, 1989

Psychology Trainee, Professional Psychology Center Clinic, School of Professional Psychology, Denver, Colorado.
Individual therapy and psychological evaluations to a general clinic population of children, adolescents, and adults.

October, 1986-August, 1987

Psychology Trainee, Lookout Mountain School for Boys, Golden, Colorado.
Individual therapy, psychological evaluations, group therapy with sexually abusive youth in this male juvenile secure correctional facility.

July, 1986-August, 1989

Assistant Coordinator, C. Henry Kempe National Center for the Prevention and Treatment of Child Abuse and Neglect, Denver, Colorado.

Worked with Resource Librarian/Facilitator of the Adolescent Perpetration Network--a national organization of clinicians working with sexually abusive youth--and coordinated local and national workshops/trainings.
July, 1985-May, 1986

Psychology Trainee, Hawaii Youth Correctional Facility, Waimanalo, Hawaii.
Group cofacilitator for adolescent male and female inmates regarding child abuse prevention, parenting skills, and responsible sexuality.
July, 1984-December, 1985

Psychology Trainee, Parents Anonymous of Hawaii, Kaneohe, Hawaii.
Group facilitator for physically, sexually, and/or emotionally abused young children. Individual and group play therapy.
September, 1979-August, 1983

Child Care Worker, Methodist Children's Home Society, Detroit, Michigan.
Worked with emotionally disturbed preadolescent boys in a transitional unit at a residential treatment center. Focus on milieu therapy.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

- Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA)--Clinical Member
- New Jersey Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (NJ-ATSA)--Member and former Board Member (6/1997 - 6/2014)
- National Adolescent Perpetration Network--Member
- New Jersey Psychological Association (NJPA)--Clinical Member
- Male Survivor--Member

PUBLICATIONS:

- Rambus, E. & Bosley, J.T. (2002). Sex offender treatment in New Jersey's incarcerated settings. New Jersey Psychologist, 52(4), 22-23.
- Ryan, G., & Associates (Bilbrey, C., Dick, J., Fuente, T., Grosz, C., Haase, C., Hyden, P., Isaac, C., Kempe, R., Lane, S., Metzner, J., Pullen, C., Rambus, E., Schweitzer, L.M., Steele, B., Wagstaff, B., Wand, S., Yager, J.). (1999). Developing a contextual matrix. In G. Ryan and Associates, Web of Meaning: A developmental-contextual approach in sexual abuse treatment (pp. 19-31). Brandon, VT: Safer Society Press.
- Witt, P. H., Rambus, E., & Bosley, T. (1996). Current developments in psychotherapy for child molesters. Sexual and Marital Therapy, 11(2), 173-185.
- Witt, P. H., Rambus, E., & Bosley, T. (1995). Assessment and treatment of adult sex offenders. New Jersey Psychologist, 45(4), 16-17.
- Rambus, E. (1988, June). Confidentiality and reporting. Interchange: Cooperative Newsletter of the Adolescent Perpetrator Network, pp. 1-4.